

POSTER

2023 Atlantic Ocean Competition

The Department of Science & Innovations in partnership with NRF-SAEON invites you to participate in the 2023 Atlantic Ocean Competition for learners from grades R-12 based in South Africa. The aim of this competition is to inspire and educate on the beautiful Atlantic Ocean or highlight some of the challenges in the Atlantic Ocean through your artwork. Your artwork can be based on any one of the themes for this year's art competition:

THEMES

- How do you or your community connect to the Atlantic Ocean?
- Indigenous Knowledge and the Atlantic Ocean
- Marine Pollution in the Atlantic Ocean
- Climate Change and the Atlantic Ocean
- Sustainable fisheries and the Atlantic Ocean

COMPETITION RULES

- All entries need to be done on A4 white non-glossy paper and should be submitted as a high-resolution digital image either in Jpg, TIF or PDF format to the email address atlanticoceancomp@saeon.nrf.ac.za on or before the 13th November at 5 pm South African Standard Time. Please make sure that when scanning or taking photographs of your artwork there is no glare.
- This competition is open to all school learners from grades R-12 based in South Africa.
- All works submitted for this competition must be learners' original works.
- You need to please complete the entry form with all your details and send it with your artwork to atlanticoceancomp@saeon.nrf.ac.za.
- All entry form needs to be signed off by the parent/guardian as learners are under the age of 18.
- Any scientific facts or statistics used in the artwork need to be accurate and attributed correctly.
- No copyrighted materials are allowed in this artwork and if there is copyrighted material, the artwork will be disqualified.
- Entries will be judged in the primary school and high school categories
- Prizes for each category include a Tablet and vouchers. The judges will make the final decision on the awarding of the prizes.
- All entries for this competition will be displayed and showcased at the All Atlantic Ocean Research and Innovation Alliance (AAORIA) meeting (21 and 22 November 2023).
- Please note that by sending your artwork to the atlanticoceancomp@saeon.nrf.ac.za email address, you are giving the competition sponsors permission to use the image for other purposes, such as websites and publications of the sponsoring organizations. Credit to the artists will be applied whenever any of the art is used.
- The submission date is on or before the 13th of November at 5 pm South African Standard Time and must be emailed with the entry form and artwork to: atlanticoceancomp@saeon.nrf.ac.za.

ENTRIES CLOSE 13 NOVEMBER @ 5 PM

Please submit your entry form and submission to atlanticoceancomp@saeon.nrf.ac.za

ENTRY FORM

2023 Atlantic Ocean Competition

INFORMATION

Name and Surname of Learner Grade Age

Name of School School Type
 Private Public Home School
 Individual Entry Other:

Contacts details for correspondence regarding the competition and the winners

Email Phone

Which category are you entering in: Please tick your response
 Poster Poetry Video

PARENTAL/GUARDIAN CONSENT

Please tick your response

I confirm that the submission for the Atlantic Ocean Art Competition is my child's own original creation Yes No

The prizes will be awarded according to the judge's decision and this cannot be contested. Yes No

I agree to indemnify and hold harmless NRF-SAEON as well as its employees, the research infrastructures, and other sponsors of this contest against any and all claims, actions, or damages Yes No

I hereby give permission for my child's submission to be entered in this contest, displayed at the conference, and used in promotional materials and I agree to the terms outlined in this form and the contest announcement Yes No

Parent/ Guardian Name & Surname:

Parent/ Guardian Signature: Date:

ENTRIES CLOSE 13 NOVEMBER @ 5 PM

Please submit your entry form and submission to atlanticoceancomp@saeon.nrf.ac.za